

“How to Get to Heaven”

Lyrics by: Raymond Blackwell (chorus written by Eric Blackwell)

Music by: Eric Blackwell

(Chorus)

Can you tell me how to get to heaven?
When there's nothing but hell we live in
I sacrifice everything I have Just to find out how to find a path to heaven
(O Yea)

(Verse One)

There's a highway to heaven I'm sure of it I've heard of it
Did I take a wrong turn am I in the wrong lane everyday the same thang
Deal'n wit the same pain wake up with the same name
I pop'n pills this is no ecstasy could the mole be me I'm in the jungle like Mogaly
I hope this prayer gon work red bulls to stop the tears at work a little beer won't hurt
DAM there I go again if I hold it in than I fold again
There's got'a be a place where its safe no race and I could focus in Even if there is fear would the Lord let me in Know how to loose but if I choose could I really win breath'n in filthy wind with this guilty sin
I hate where I from cause when it rains it pours if I could just see the doors of heaven
I'm on soul street mom thinks I'm gone my dad's a control freak

(Chorus)

(Verse Two)

Intuition with a different vision money low we make'n poor decisions
I need Him I can't afford religion like a ford ignition is my remission
Please forgive me wrong place wrong time still made it through
If its still made for you wait for it don't be ashamed do ya thang
Lets get fresh and go change for it no time to cry I'm wild with the force
I'm try'n ta stay strong but mom filed for divorce of course
Struggle with opinions of grow'n up ta facts of not know'n what
You know me but homie cut I got'a get away from here
My whole life I been neutral now I'm shift'n to I safer gear
Can I go I'm I right you know a place where I can get a pump
Mine as well go the only place I aint been is up
Look'n for a change that remains in an empty heart
Nowhere to end I only fell if I never start

(Bridge)

Won't you come won't won't you come (2x)
There's so much that I've done in life
I close my eyes and bear my cross
With all I have I leave my home
In search of peace to call my own
I know that I'll be fine
If I can find some way to get there (Can Ya Tell Me)

(Chorus)

(Outro)

Won't you come with me
