

The Greatest

Lyrics by: Raymond Blackwell
Music by: Eric Blackwell
Performed by: RayWellz ft. Adonis

(Intro)

I'm so into what I do

(Verse One)

You just get'n started I've been done for years
I don't drink beers I wear blue minks on peers
Sport a couple gears go up for air shut down a couple careers
I'm the greatest you know how it is when ya famous
I hope for the better that I go through these changes
Hold it all in but it's all for the rain
2Pac a cigarettes some things'll never change what a shame
Make the guap don't let the quap make you
Take the block don't let the block take you Eat good stay in shape to Ma I'm the greatest you know what my name is you know where my brain is hanging outside of these Ranges
After the aftermath I'm just add'n cash heavily to the corporate stash
Blast get straight to the future past
Red carpet market the album he could be the best if you help'um
I just need you ta say one thing

(Chorus)

I'm the greatest if I leave I'll come back from the latest to the greatest I'm both of that
If you need a couple hints I'm good for that I just need you ta say one thing
You the greatest if you leave you'll comeback from the latest to the greatest yur both of that
I just need you ta say one thing you the greatest

Your that star up in the sky your that mountain way up high
You the greatest

(Verse Two)

I'm that star up in the oops my bad wrong song same concept
I need to do I quick dawn check three piece Kelvin Klein wifey a little quap and I'm good
You couldn't stand where I stood my accountant needs to count dat

I'm a give a couple mil you could count on dat
If you wanna go chill we could meet out back
Dolla fa dolla stack fa stack
Certain flow hands clap curtains close I just need ya'll ta say one thing
I'm the greatest cause I been good from the start
Think I'm good for the part got the hood for the heart
No act'n financially back'n quick break than I'm back in Oder in what I'm oder'n something ta go
Cause I can't stay long with this billboard flow
Lost soldier last song didn't crossover
This right here a organized takeover breaks over

(Chorus)

I'm the greatest

I'm the greatest if I leave I'll come back from the latest to the greatest I'm both of that
If you need a couple hints I'm good for that I just need you ta say one thing
You the greatest if you leave you'll comeback from the latest to the greatest yur both of
that
I just need you ta say one thing you the greatest

(Verse Three)

I place no faith in the flesh
And I been here a little longer so I guess you a guess
And you say you floss'n cause you bought a whip at a auction
Dued ya breath stank start floss'n
Could a got it fa free now it's gon cost you a fee
Want a bootleg it's gon cost you a T
Pray for the projects it's nonsense get killed over nine cents
I pray for God is the greatest I'm just make'n a song
Please get ya morals up if you think that I'm wrong
On top of mine on top of time
If you make a real offer than I can't decline I'm like a broke time machine I can't rewind
(Ah) cornflakes than I had to the lake
Dinner in Paris mom lets make it a date
The greatest I'll be saying that for ages
I can't just leave I'm a addicted to stages
No heart attack I'm attack'n ya heart
Please know that it's real from the heart

(Chorus)

Your that star up in the sky your that mountain way up high
You the greatest

I'm the greatest if I leave I'll come back from the latest to the greatest I'm both of that
If you need a couple hints I'm good for that I just need you ta say one thing
You the greatest if you leave you'll comeback from the latest to the greatest yur both of
that
I just need you ta say one thing you the greatest

Your that star up in the sky your that mountain way up high
You the greatest

I'm the greatest if I leave I'll come back from the latest to the greatest I'm both of that
If you need a couple hints I'm good for that I just need you ta say one thing
You the greatest if you leave you'll comeback from the latest to the greatest yur both of
that
I just need you ta say one thing you the greatest

I'm the greatest if I leave I'll come back from the latest to the greatest I'm both of that
If you need a couple hints I'm good for that I just need you ta say one thing
